PRESS RELEASE

Dominoes Pizza Deliver Driver Robbed

On 01-05-2008, Commerce Police were dispatched to Tarter Apartments off of Maple Street regarding an aggravated robbery of a Dominoes Delivery Driver.

The victim told police that he went to the Tarter Apartments to deliver a pizza and while he was at the door, a Hispanic or white male came from the side of the apartment, pulled a small caliber firearm and demanded everything he had. The suspect is described as a Hispanic or white male, about 5'-9", wearing a green camouflage ski mask, tan work gloves, a blue jean jacket and blue jean pants.

The victim complied with the suspect and gave him his wallet. The suspect also took the victims car, however, it was recovered a short time later within about 4 blocks of where the robbery occurred.

Anyone with information is asked to contact Detective Steve Scott with the Commerce Police Department at 903-886-1139.
