PRESS RELEASE

Commerce Police arrest two in connection with recent burglary

Detectives with the commerce Police Department have arrested two persons in connection with a 2008 burglary at Prairie Crossing Apartments.

Dorian Babino and Greg Allmon were arrested on January 22nd for the Burglary of an Apartment at Prairie Crossing. Babino was an employee at Prairie Crossing and is alleged to have given the key to an apartment to her boyfriend, Greg. Greg is alleged to have entered the apartment and removed two items, a 32 inch LCD Flat screen television (valued at $500.00) and a Xbox 360 Game System (Valued at $600.00). Both items were recovered.

Both suspects were transported to Hunt County Criminal Justice Center and were arraigned by Justice of the Peace James "Sarge" Erwin. Bond was set at $30,000 each. Both suspects have been released.
